

BLACK + WHITE R E V I S I T E D

13th April - 12th May 2007

The contrast of black and white has long occupied the creative mind of artists. From the evocative chiaroscuro of the Renaissance painters to the startling portraits of the Dutch masters this basic palette lends itself to a variety of forms.

Indigenous artists have embraced this palette into their own unique style and have produced awe inspiring work in various mediums.

Image: Dorothy Napangardi 'Kana Karlangu 2004'

We are proud to bring you this exhibition which includes:

- A stunning black and white canvas by Dorothy Napangardi,
- A unique series of Walala tingari's on paper,
- Linocuts by Dennis Nona who is currently featured at The Queensland Art Gallery's Asia-Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art,
- Glass sculptures together with matching canvases by Robert Murray.

This is an exhibition not to be missed.

Michele Boscia
Gallery Director

